WICHITA MARKETS

WICHITA, Sept. 22, '92.

Cattle receipts were moderate. Buyers seemed most anxious for the best stuff on the market. Good bids were made on all the offerings. The quality of a good part of the offerings was good. The cows that sold at $2 per hundred were extra good. The market steady.

The offerings presented are to give the shipper idea of the general range of prices. The various classes and grades sell within the limits of these figures. The market offerings and the state of the daily markets. These quotations are only charged when there has been a just demand for them. The market and the representative sales should be referred to for the daily offerings.
